Civil Registry and Migration Department's guidelines due to Covid-19:

- Third-country nationals who possess residence permits or tourist visas, whose validity has expired within a reasonable period of time and cannot be renewed or extended or for the third-country nationals who cannot be repatriated, no measures will be taken against them
- Due to the restrictions on the right of entry into the Republic of Cyprus, under the present circumstances with the degrees issued by the Ministry of Health, the issuance of all entry permits is suspended by the Civil Registry and Migration Department.

The Ministry of Labour, Welfare and Social Insurance (MLS1) announcement Automatic approval for employment of Third Country Nationals.

The MLS1 on the basis of the measures for limiting the spread of COVID-19 announced that the existing approvals for employment will be automatically issued for one year and the relevant approval letters will be sent to employers. Hence, it is not required any additional application for approval to MLS1.

- The above is applicable to Third Country Nationals who are already employed on annual basis
- The existing employment contracts will be extended until the expiration date of the approval which will be sent to the employers
